Social Connection through Shared Experience
Continued Growth
New Skills
Active Engagement
Now is the Perfect Time to Earn Your College Degree

The fully-accredited SENIORU college degree is fun and experiential. In stimulating, participatory classes designed by seniors to relate to your life, you’ll grow, share and learn in a community of friends. This exciting collaboration between Concordia College and Wartburg gives retirees in Westchester a new opportunity to earn a college degree—at just the right time.

Music, art, history, literature, science, spirituality, health, exercise—and much more—all taught by Concordia faculty.

Classes are participatory—not lecture-based. You won’t just learn—you’ll learn HOW...

...to understand works of art

...to talk to your children and grandchildren on social media

...to move and breathe in ways that improve your circulation and posture

...to protect your assets and manage your daily finances

...to feel a part of our rapidly changing world

At SENIORU you will:

• Connect with others in a social, interactive learning community

• Stay active attending interesting, participatory classes

• Enrich your life in ways that will help you, your family, community and place of worship

• Learn new strategies as you process and use new information

SENIORU IS DESIGNED AROUND YOU!

• Classes meet 3 days a week for 5 hours—lunch is included

• All classes are held on Wartburg’s beautiful 34-acre campus—the expert in senior care

• You may be eligible for financial—aid up to full funding—we’ll help you apply
